IPMS Hamilton in conjunction with AK Interactive are honoured to present our 2019 special guest, Kristof Pulinckx!

"Specializing in armour models, but equally keen about jets, warbirds, SciFi models or cars. Applying extreme weathering to a model is what I love to do most. Beaten up, battle-weary vehicles are my soft spot."

Apart from being an amazing modeller, Kristof is also project manager for AK Interactive as well as editor at Tanker Magazine. And a proud member of the KMK modelling club, the famous Blue shirts.
